Birkhoff Wayne is a 4th year Computer Science student focusing on Network Technology and Artificial Intelligence at U of T St. George Campus. Single. He is a geek. He never goes to the lecture because he thinks he can find everything he wants from Internet. In that case, he brings with his laptop and smartphone all the time. Birkhoff usually spends full day playing with his cool tools, such as 3D-printer, quadrotor helicopter or Google Glasses. He goes to gym everyday. He knows how to control the oven to heat the food or order take-out by using his

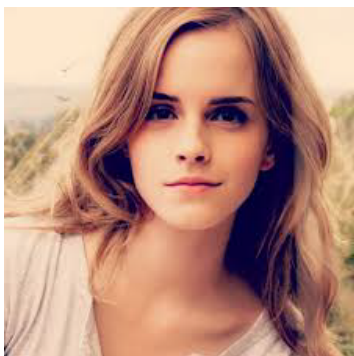

A typical day for Birkhoff starts early. He watches morning news while he running on the treadmill for an hour. At the same time, he sends instructions to the smart oven to heat last night's Popeyes by his iPhone. He starts to study at 9:00 everyday. He always finishes studying at around 13:00 since he is super clever. After a half-hour nap, he starts his own project until midnight.

Birkhoff rarely go to lectures because he is a not socialized person, which gives him a lot of trouble. He missed important announcements, assignment deadline and presentations date. He sometimes forgets to upload his assignment after he finished. And he becomes extremely upset when he noticed that the deadline of his assignment is passed.

High GPA girl Claire

Claire Watson

20 years old

From North York

Claire Watson is a 2nd year old girl from Statistics Department, majoring in applied statistics. She lives in North York with her parents, so she takes subway to school everyday. Her hobby is dancing. After school on Friday, she usually goes to Hart House to take dance class. During her weekend, she has a part time tutoring job for her neighbor. She teaches math and statistics and she loves this job.

Claire is a very hard working girl and trying to get A+ on every course. She does her homework and reviews lecture notes during her way to school. She tries to use every time she has, like on subway, eating or walking on road. She thinks laptop is heavy, so she uses smartphone a lot to check course updates or announcements on Blackboard.

Claire never misses a single lecture or tutorial. She will go to every office hours to solve her questions related to the courses. In fact, she always gets good grades on her quizzes, term tests and projects. And her classmates are happy to ask her questions and she's always willing to answer them.
